Jane M. Klausman

Women in Business Scholarships

A Zonta International Program, Funded by the Zonta International Foundation

General Information

The Zonta International Foundation awarded the first Jane M. Klausman Women in Business Scholarships in 1998 to women pursuing an undergraduate degree in business leading to a business management career. This program was established from a bequest by Jane M. Klausman, a member of the Zonta Club of Syracuse, New York USA, and the 1990-1995 Zonta International Parliamentarian. During her career, Ms. Klausman was a professional secretary, parliamentarian and entrepreneur.

The Scholarship

The Jane M. Klausman Women in Business Scholarships are awarded to women studying business at the undergraduate level who have demonstrated outstanding potential in the field. Zonta International offers six scholarships in the amount of US$ 5,000 each. The scholarship may be used at any university, college or institute offering accredited courses and degrees.

Who is Eligible?

Women of any nationality pursuing an undergraduate business degree who demonstrate outstanding potential in the field are eligible. Members and employees of Zonta International or the Zonta International Foundation are not eligible to apply for the Scholarships.

What are the Requirements?

Applicants must meet the following minimum requirements:

- ❑ Be eligible to enter the third or fourth year of an undergraduate degree program (first university degree) at an accredited university/college/institute at the time the funds are received.
- ❑ Have achieved an outstanding academic record during the first two-three years of academic studies.
- ❑ Demonstrate intent to complete a program in business, knowledge of the field and outstanding achievement in business-related subjects, as recorded on the official university/college/institute transcript.
- ❑ Demonstrate initiative, ambition and commitment to pursuing a career in business.

How Do I Apply?

Complete an official application in English (may be printed or downloaded from the Zonta International Web site, www.zonta.org) and include:

1. One confidential recommendation from a faculty member in the major field of study.
2. One confidential recommendation from an employer, volunteer supervisor, or academic advisor. (Members and employees of Zonta International or the Zonta International Foundation are not eligible to write recommendation letters for applicants.)
3. An essay in 500 words or less that clearly describes your academic and professional goals, the relevance of your program to the business field and how the Jane M. Klausman Women in Business Scholarship will assist you in reaching your goals.
4. Verification of enrollment from the university/college/institute registrar.

- ❑ This requirement may be deferred if the application deadline precedes the university/college/institute enrollment period. Applicant must provide written confirmation of the enrollment period with the application. Scholarship recipients must provide verification of enrollment before scholarship funds will be released.
 - ❑ Students from the Southern Hemisphere may have limited academic records available at the time of application for Club and District Jane M. Klausman Scholarship. If further records are available at the later date, these may be included when the District forwards their nominee to Zonta International for consideration in the selection of the International Jane M. Klausman Scholarship.
5. Transcripts of grades or equivalent records for all universities, colleges, or institutes, with an explanation of the grading system with each transcript submitted.
 6. All non-English documents must be translated in English.
 7. All application materials must be received at the Zonta Club by the deadline printed on the application. If the Zonta Club contact information is not printed on the application, please locate a Zonta Club nearest you by using the Club Locator at www.zonta.org, or e-mail your name and contact information to Zonta International Headquarters at zontafdn@zonta.org
 8. Articles, pamphlets, books, curriculum vitae or other publications are not requested and will not be considered.
 9. Applications that are incomplete or late due to postal delays, transmittal by third parties, or other circumstances will not be considered. Applications are accepted by fax and email provided the originals are post marked within three days after the fax is received.

What is the Application Process?

Applications selected by Zonta Clubs are sent to the Zonta District Governors. A District Evaluating Committee selects one applicant per district to submit to Zonta International Headquarters. The Zonta International Jane M. Klausman Women in Business Scholarship Subcommittee selects six international recipients from the district applicants.

How may I use the Scholarship Funds?

1. The scholarship may be used for any expenses that support the achievement of an undergraduate degree in a business related field.
2. For domestic and foreign recipients studying in the United States, scholarship funds used for tuition, books, fees, supplies or required equipment for the program of study are not considered taxable income. Withholding taxes may be required on funds used for living expenses or other non-qualified expenses.
3. Recipients are not permitted to defer the Scholarship. Zonta International will consider a new application the following year, but no preferential consideration will be given to the second application.
4. Recipients may accept additional grants and scholarships from other sources.
